IN COLLABORATION WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC
PRESENTS

Directed by
John Hickok

BY MOSS HART AND GEORGE S. KAUFMAN

Brief Synopsis:

You Can't Take it With You introduces audiences to the freethinking, eccentric Sycamore family and the mayhem that ensues when their daughter's fiancé brings his conservative, straight-laced parents to dinner on the wrong night. This Pulitzer Prize-winning, uproarious family affair is set in Depression era New York (1936-37), and features comedic fun for the whole family.

There will be one five minute intermission, and a second 10 minute intermission between the play's three acts.

Latecomers will be seated at a suitable break in performance. As a courtesy to others, please set pagers to silent mode. Cellular phones and other audible electronic devices should be turned off so they will not interrupt the performance. Photography and videotaping are not permitted due to copyright restrictions. Flash photography is dangerous to performers by causing momentary blindness.
